Resiliency is the ability to recovery from challenges and be safe, healthy and successful.

The resilient person has the capacity to solve problems.

The resilient community has the capacity to support residents when they face problems.